

2019 National Mentoring Symposium Fact Sheet

Event Date: Saturday, October 5, 2019

Event Time: 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Location: IUPUI Campus Center, CE 450; Indianapolis, IN

Description:

The IUPUI National Mentoring Symposium is a one-day national conference for undergraduate students who work as peer mentors in various capacities. This event allows for peer mentoring programs from around the nation to come together in an effort of personal and professional development. Peer mentors, faculty, and staff will enhance their skills and increase their understanding of strategic methods to mentor students.

Proposal Submissions:

(Deadline for Submissions: Tuesday, May 28, 2019)

Mentors, faculty, and staff are invited to present at this year's National Mentoring Symposium. Presentation topics can include but are not limited to professionalism, diversity, leadership, motivation, time management, and marketing mentoring skills. While these subjects are a priority, we encourage you to submit any original ideas you may have for presentation topics at this year's symposium.

Registration:

Registration will open in June 2019.

Registration Deadline: Monday, September 2, 2019 or until capacity is reached.

Cost: $69 per person

*$59 per person for groups of 10 or more

*Contact Landon Brothers (ljbrothe@iupui.edu) to register a group of 10 individuals or more.

Keynote Speaker: Chad Littlefield, We and Me, Inc.

Chad Littlefield is the co-founder and chief experience officer of We and Me, Inc.—an organization whose mission is to create conversations that matter. Forbes calls Littlefield a “global expert on asking questions that build trust and connection in teams.” He is a TEDx speaker, author of the Pocket Guide to Facilitating Human Connections, and creator of We! Connect Cards™, which are now being used to create conversations that matter on campuses and companies in over 80 countries around the world. Most recently, Littlefield and his partner Will Wise launched their new book, Ask Powerful Questions: Create Conversations that Matter, now a #1 Amazon Bestseller.

Symposium Schedule

- I. Welcome and Main Speaker
- II. Concurrent Sessions – Group A
- III. Concurrent Sessions – Group B
- IV. Lunch and Poster Session
- V. Concurrent Sessions – Group C
- VI. Concurrent Sessions – Group D
- VII. Closing

For More Information:

Visit the National Mentoring Symposium website (symposium.iupui.edu), or contact Landon Brothers via email (ljbrothe@iupui.edu) or by phone (317) 278-0381.